

Financial Aid Reference Documents

In addition to the Policies and Procedures posted on the Touro University Nevada Website (Fund Your Education), other regulations which affect student aid will be adhered to. The regulations and guides are located at www.ifap.ed.gov and include, but are not limited to the following publications:

- Federal Student Financial Aid Handbook
- Federal Registers
- U. S. Department of Education Audit Guidance publication
- The Blue Book
- EDConnect User's Guide and Technical Reference
- EDEXpress User's Guide and Technical Reference
- Higher Education Act as amended
- EFC Formula Guide
- Dear Colleague Letters from the Department of Education
- NSLDS Reference Materials
- SFA Policy Bulletins
- SAR and ISIR Reference Materials

The mission statement of Touro University Nevada is to provide quality educational programs in the fields of health care and education in concert with the Judaic commitment to social justice, intellectual pursuit, and service to humanity.

The primary purpose of the financial program at Touro University is to provide financial assistance to students, who, without aid, would be unable to attend the university. It is the policy of Touro University to award federal financial aid in accordance with federal regulations and guidelines pertaining to the types of assistance requested.